

FRAMING THE CRITICAL ISSUES: TANF REAUTHORIZATION

*Presentation by Grant Collins, Deputy Director, Office of Family Assistance, ACF, HHS at the Urban Leadership Forum – Looking Back, Moving Forward March 2, 2005 * Baltimore, MD*

The Urban Partnerships Initiative is an HHS project designed to improve outcomes for low-income families by facilitating peer exchange between TANF stakeholders in urban centers. The Initiative grew out of a recognition that TANF caseloads were increasingly concentrated in urban areas and an understanding that low-income families in urban areas face specific challenges on their journey to self-sufficiency.

The Urban Leadership Forum was a two-day meeting designed to bring together the leaders of the original partner cities to engage in peer dialogue, exchange lessons learned, and provide feedback to OFA regarding the project and how the initiative can continue to be valuable for future participants. Additionally, the Forum provided OFA an opportunity to share formal remarks on TANF Reauthorization.

Mr. Collins' PowerPoint provides a framework for considering the critical issues associated with TANF Reauthorization. Central to this discussion is the GAO's report on the need for HHS to provide guidance on measuring work participation. Within the context of the PowerPoint, Mr. Collins references extant research and other resources that may be useful to cities. The remainder of this document provides a brief summary and point-and-click access to these resources. Resources are listed in the order in which they appear in the presentation.

The Achieving Common Goals Conference

The Achieving Common Goals conference illustrated ACF's commitment to encouraging employment and the journey to self-sufficiency, while remaining mindful of the impacts of drug and alcohol addiction on families.

UPI and Big Five

Understanding the disproportionate share of TANF families concentrated in urban settings –and the unique challenges facing the urban poor – ACF has invested in the Urban Partnerships Initiative and a subset of that initiative for the largest five cities in the country. The UPI and "Big Five" are focused on several important aspects relative to TANF Reauthorization including full engagement, diversion, employment, EITC, and special populations (e.g. child only cases). Several reports are available:
